

POSTGRADUATE INNOVATION FUND

Previous Funded Innovations

January 2011:

Geriatric Medicine: Use of Video-Recording Technology and Team StACERS to Improve Competencies in Communicator and Collaborator Roles in an Interprofessional Setting.

Cardiology: Incremental value of a skills-based portfolio on a Cardiology resident's interpretative and technical skills in echocardiography.

Critical Care Medicine: Implementation and evaluation of a simulation-based standardized procedural training program for postgraduate trainees in the ICU.

Nephrology: The Nephrology CanMEDS OSCE: An innovative examination designed to assess physician competencies in non-medical expert roles.

January 2010:

General Internal Medicine: Hybrid simulation for the combined assessment of procedural, communication and collaboration skills